

Lyman Offers Voice for Torrance, Chairman Says

Carrying City's Banner Torrance residents were being urged on the eve of Tuesday's primary election to support Councilman David K. Lyman in his campaign for the state's new 32nd Senatorial District.

John Billings, Torrance chairman for the Lyman campaign, pointed out that Lyman offered Torrance residents the unique opportunity to have direct representation in the state legislature's upper house.

A MEMBER of the City Council since 1964, Lyman has a record of significant accomplishments during his term, Billings pointed out. He pointed to Lyman's role in obtaining more and better police protection, increased protection from fire loss, continued airport growth, and expanded recreational facilities.

In addition to his local activities, Lyman served as an elector member of the city selection committee of the Southern California Rapid Transit District and is chairman of the City Council's public works committee, a member of the Parks and Recreation Committee, and a member of the public building committee.

Lyman, a practicing attorney, has served four years on the Los Angeles County Democratic Central Committee. He and his wife, Marion, and two daughters live in North Torrance.
